RULES OF ENGAGEMENT

Dear potentual participant to the workshop THE TAO OF CLOWN.

Before sending your confirmation deposit, please read this document carefully and thoroughly. You will find a variety of details on how I ask participants to engage with the work. Feel free to reach out if you have any questions or you need any clarifications.

PARTICIPATION

The workshop is a continuum. It is not possible to attend in parts~~,~~ or to miss any sections of it. Every step of the process is fundamental and leads into the next one. To respect the integrity of the process for both the individual and the group everyone is required to be physically present at all times.

It is not possible to participate from remote and sessions will not be recorded.

Classes will start on time and end on time. Participants are required to be on time and to not leave before the official end of the class.

EMBODIMENT

The work includes a lot of movement practice with a variety of physical theatre exercises and games. Participants are required to remain engaged. Participants are always responsible for working to their own level of fitness as well as communicating and adjusting for any pre-existing injuries or physical conditions.

CLOWN AND EMOTIONS

This workshop will be a journey in search of your individual clown. You will take part in an irreversible poetic and personal process, that will bring you closer to some aspects of your unique comic folly.

I call my approach to clown Somatic Clown Process. It starts from the body and it is based on the exploration on what is uniquely and personally funny about each person on a somatic level. This will engage you both artistically and emotionally, and it will bring you closer to your core, not only as an artist, but also as a human being.

It will be exciting and intense, sometimes hard and terrifying: we will work and play with whatever emotion will be in the field. They are all vital and profoundly poetic, and the Red Nose has the unique power to transform them into comedy – a sublime form of human vulnerable comedy.

In my clown teaching, there is a lot of laughter and some tears as well. And there are tears turning into laughter, which is the most precious gift of this work, to ourselves and to the world.

You are maybe used to a teaching style or an academic setting where the student is allowed to disengage or interrupt their work at any moment in order to regulate with their emotions. This is not how I work. The emotional regulation happens through PLAY. This is the fundamental teaching of the clown state.

Emotions, both personal and transpersonal, may arise during the work. Playing with them brings the person in touch with their emotional vitality.

A core element of this work consists of exploring and playing with and through the emotions emerging from the somatic exploration while remaining engaged and in contact: with oneself, with the space, with the group and with the teacher. Sometimes this process involves a time of emotional discomfort and to remain in touch with it is a crucial part of my approach. The Red Nose as a mask is a brilliant master of contact and transformation.

The emotions that may emerge during the work belong to the work and they are a fundamental source of presence, awareness, poetic inspirations and …comedy ! They belong both to the person and to the group. The setting offers a variety of techniques and a constant support by the teacher to assist the participants to remain playfully engaged in the work, while being in contact with their experience. But it is not possible to leave the room, to take a break to disengage, have a moment, take a pause or miss any of the class. All emotional states are re-engaged in the poetic space of the clown state.

CANCELLATION & REFUND POLICY

My cancellation policy wishes to recognize the different needs of both parties of the registration process. I am aware that unexpected events can happen in life and plans need to be changed, and at the same time, cancellations involve a variety of practical and financial issues on my end.

- Notice of cancellation must be made by email.
- In all cases of cancellation, the entire deposit will be forfeited.
- If the written cancellation notice is received by 1st February, I will retain the deposit, and refund the remaining part of the paid tuition.
- If the written cancellation notice is received after 1st February and before the beginning of the workshop, I will retain the deposit, and all other payments will be refunded only if the empty spot is filled by a new participant. Otherwise the remaining part of the paid tuition will be forfeited.
- Depending on the reasons for the cancellation the parties can discuss a partial compensation in the form of a reduced tuition in a future workshop.
- In the event of failure to notify in writing, a “no show” or written notification received on or after the beginning date of the training, the entire payment will be forfeited.
- If the ernolled participant attends the training and leaves for any reason prior to completion of the training, the deposit plus the totality of the paid tuition will be forfeited.

- If a participant decides to enter into patterns of participation that are destructive against oneself, the group or the teacher, and they refuse to take responsibility for it within the context and purpose of the workshop, the teacher can ask that participant to leave the workshop. Destructive patterns include physical, emotional, psychological or interpersonal events. In this case, a pro-rata amount, based on the number of days of attendance, will be refunded

CANCELLATION OF THE TRAINING

• In case of unpredictable events that will force us to cancel the training for reasons of force majeure (ex: natural disasters, political or social upheavals or other unexpected acts of the humans or the Gods and Goddesses…) all paid tuition and deposit will be refunded, minus $70 for administrative fees. No travel or accommodation expenses already paid by the participants will be refunded.

• If, once the training has started, it needs to be interrupted for reasons of force majeure, a pro-rata amount, based on the number of days of attendance, will be refunded. In this unfortunate scenario, no travel expenses, or accommodation expenses already paid by the participants will be refunded.

If you have questions or you need some clarification on any parts of this document, please do not hesitate to contactme.

I wish you the best

See you in the playing field.

Giovanni Fusetti

Clown is a space of vulnerability and personal power.
Rigorous fun and courageous openness.
Strict technique and articulated chaos.

Clown is about learning to fall and how to have fun while falling.
You will decide how deep and how far you want to go.
You will be amazed to discover how high we can fall.
